

Complete or Incomplete?

Farmers work with animal nutritionists to make sure their animals get the complete nutrition they need to grow strong and healthy. Sentences need a noun (person, place or thing) and a verb (action) to be complete. Sort the sentences by whether they are complete or incomplete.

Graze on fresh grasses.

Cattle can digest grasses people can't eat.

Fed hay and silage.

The animal nutritionist.

A calf drinks milk from its mom for 6 months.

Some farmers feed their cattle grains, like corn.

A well-balanced diet.

Farmers move cattle from pasture to pasture.

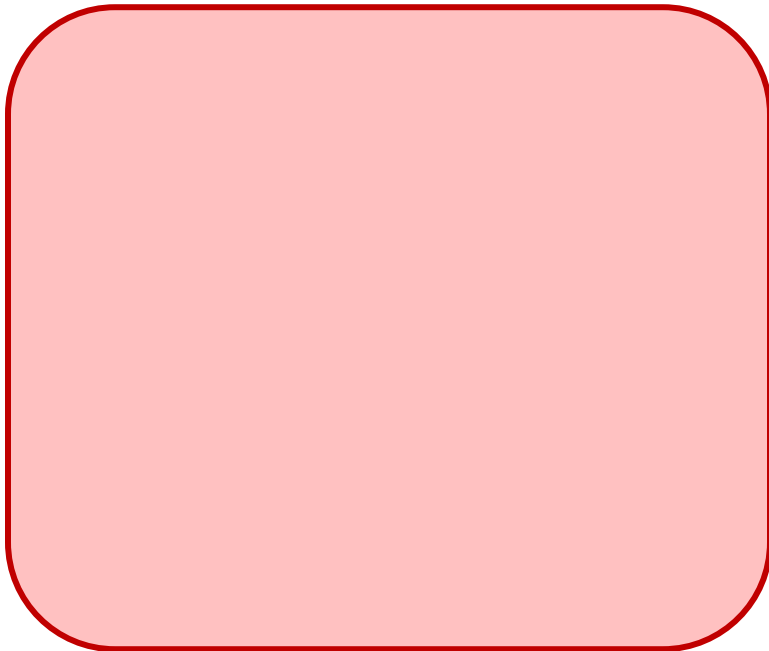

Farmers make sure cattle have fresh water.

Get nutrients from their food.

Cut out the sentences above and place in the correct box below.

Complete

Incomplete

Rewrite one of the incomplete sentences to make a complete sentence about beef animals and their nutrition.

